

dailypioneer.com

Indira Gandhi Sangrahalaya to organise various programmes on June 5

The Pioneer

3-4 minutes

Sunday, 02 June 2019 | Staff Reporter | Bhopal

Indira Gandhi Rashtriya Manav Sangrahalaya under the celebrations of its World Environment Day is organising various programmes and activities at its premises on June 5, 2019. The day will begin with a bicycle rally from Dina Dayal Park, Patrakaar Colony at 7 am. After that Tree Plantation will be organised at on both sides of the road near of the Tribal Habitat Open air exhibition.

Sangrahalaya will organise a Painting Workshop who based on folk and tribal paintings of 12 states - Kerala, Tamil Nadu, West Bengal, Orissa, Rajasthan, Gujarat, Andhra Pradesh, Goa, Telangana, Maharashtra, Chhattisgarh and Karnataka from June 5 to 14 for 11 am at Avritti Bhawan. The traditional and folk artists are participating in this workshop. Kerala and Tamil Nadu's community peoples will be performed Sacred Grove rituals programs in Puneet Van Area at the Sangrahalaya.

On this occasion, Sangrahalaya is organising a Museum Special Leature on 'Environment and Air Pollution'. The key speaker of this colloquium is Prof TV Ramachandra (Centre for Ecological Sciences, IISC Bangalore) at Rock Art conference hall from 4 pm.

The exhibit for the month of June, 2019 is "PERAKH: Headgear of Ladkhi Women", from Leh-Ladakh, Jammu-Kashmir. This exhibition is being mounted by Mr. Rajesh Gautam (Museum Associate).