

Vishnumayanand Swamiji to be honoured

SIRSI: Vishnumayanand Swamiji of Shivehalli in Anekal taluk near Bengaluru has been selected for the Vrukshalakshya award being given by Vrukshalaksha Andolan and Sharadamba Education Society of Bhairumbe.

The award will be presented to Vishnumayanand Swamiji during the valedictory of the three-day 'lake' convention to be held in Sirsi taluk between November 13 and 15.

The award carries a memento and cash award of ₹ 5,000.

Achievements

By his continuous efforts, Vishnumayanand Swamiji who has worked with Ramakrishna Mission has developed forest on 300 acre barren land.

He has grown plants like sandalwood, bamboo and others.

He has also created lakes and other water sources to help the plants during summers.

At 74, he is running a school for orphans and gowshala and watering wildlife, animals and even villagers.

DH News Service

Vishnumayanand Swamiji.