

HOME / SCI-TECH / TECHNOLOGY

India improves on mobile download speed; fixed broadband drops: report

On median fixed broadband speed, India came down by one spot in global ranking from 83 in April to 84 in May

June 21, 2023 12:40 pm | Updated 01:23 pm IST

THE HINDU BUREAU

COMMENTS

SHARE

READ LATER

Latest News

- 42 mins ago - Other States
'It's my style', says JD(U) MLA caught on camera moving in Bhagalpur hospital with revolver in hand

- 1 hour ago - News
Top news of the day: Three share Nobel Prize in Chemistry for discovery of quantum dots, now used in LEDs; ED summons actor Ranbir Kapoor in Mahadev betting app case, and more

- 1 hour ago - Other States
PM Modi introduced 'report card' politics: Nadda

- 1 hour ago - India
Just counting castes not enough, reveal findings of socio-economic survey as well: Kushwaha

READ MORE STORIES

On median fixed broadband speed, India came down by one spot in global ranking from 83 in April to 84 in May. | Photo Credit: Reuters

India climbed three positions in median mobile download speed globally to 56th spot in May from 59th in April 2023, finds Ookla.

According to the Ookla's Speedtest Global Index report, it recorded 39.94 Mbps median mobile download speed in May which was at 36.78 Mbps in April 2023 in India.

On median fixed broadband speed, India came down by one spot in global ranking from 83 in April to 84 in May.

However, India's performance in fixed median download speed witnessed a slight increase from 51.12 Mbps in April to 52.53 Mbps in May 2023.

According to the May Speedtest Global Index, UAE leads the chart for overall global median mobile speeds, whereas Mauritius increased 11 spots in rank, globally.

For fixed broadband download speed, Singapore is consistent at the number one spot in May and Bahrain increased 17 spots in rank, globally.

Ookla's Speedtest Global Index ranks mobile and fixed broadband speed from around the world monthly.

COMMENTS

SHARE

Related stories

India climbs 49 places on Ookla Speedtest Global Index, mobile speeds increase by 115%

Hard to restore internet while blocking social media sites, Manipur tells HC

Can chatbots boost mental health?

Related Topics

internet / technology \(general\) / gadgets \(general\) / India