Bangalore: The Karnataka High Court on Monday directed the Bruhat Bangalor Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) to re-survey all trees planted in the city from 2007 till date. It also flayed the pailke for not making any progress on the tree committee that has been formed. The division bench comprising chief justice DH Waghela and justice HG Ramesh also directed it to constitute a meeting in this regard within two weeks.

The bench was hearing a suo motu case based on a letter written by former high court judge DV Shylendra Kumar to then chief justice JS Khehar, stating that hundreds of trees were being cut for road widening in Bangalore. The petition also pertains to media reports on various incidents of tree-felling in the city. On Monday, the be
