*Role of Moderators:

1. Sending a reminder mail one day in advance

2. Initiate the discussion and moderate the discussion (section wise in a chapter)

3. Announcement of assignment/s. Moderators are required to announce assignment on the respective day (of discussion) and mail to the course co-ordinator (ram@ces.iisc.ernet.in)

4. Evaluation of the e-performance (moderators will assign marks to each participant of e-session - based on i. activity level, ii. quality of the discussion/ value addition through case studies). Marks to moderators depending on the level of co-ordination (time and content management, quality discussion..). The consolidated marks list (candidate wise) to be mailed to me immediately after completion of a chapter discussion (Friday morning/ evening)

5. Ensuring the completion of all sections in a chapter with case studies in allotted time (7 pm to 8 30 pm, on Wednesday and Thursday)

6. Those who missed the first contact session are welcome to take part in e-session. But required to go through respective chapter before joining the e-discussion group. We have completed presentation of all 10 chapters in the first contact session and now take up discussion of each chapter on Wednesday and Thursday, each week beginning from 10th September 2014.

7. Yet another opportunity to learn and in presence of virtual e-tutors.

8. Bonus marks to moderators, if sessions are conducted / moderated efficiently with full attendance and active participation of all.
